RE: Midwinter Meeting Room Locations, Dallas, January 20-24, 2012

Attached is the schedule of meeting room locations that have been assigned for the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Dallas, TX.

Please note that we cannot accept any changes at this time. All meetings were final on October 10th.

We tried our best to honor every co-location requests. However, in a few cases it was not possible, especially as we got further into the scheduling process and rooms were full.

Additionally, all meeting rooms have been set to the maximum, and in some instances room set have been changed in order to accommodate everyone. .

Please remind your speakers and members that they are prohibited from making room set changes in the convention center and other hotels. We set the rooms to accommodate ALL groups, not one group. Any fees to reset a room will be charged to the sponsoring group should this occur.
